

St. Clements Island Campout & Leadership Training Saturday September 12 & Sunday September 13, 2009

T-255's September Campout

Where: On March 25, 1634, the first English settlers under the Baltimore proprietorship made first land-fall at St. Clement's Island on the Ark and the Dove. It is located in the Potomac River, St. Mary's County, Maryland. St. Clements is only accessible by water taxi. If it is too windy or rainy for the water taxi to ferry us to the island, we will drive to Point Lookout to camp.

Who: All Scouts, parents and siblings (siblings must be accompanied by an adult) are welcome on this trip. Pack 255 Senior Webelos and their families are especially welcome.

Theme for the Campout: Leadership training, Service Project, Fun, and Road to First Class Scouts can satisfy numerous cooking, fire and rope related requirements. Patrols are to come prepared to either stove or grill cook.

Assemble: 8:30 AM Saturday at CCUMC.

Return: 3:30 PM Sunday at CCUMC.

Emergency Contacts: Rose Cell 301-807-6441,
MD Dept of Natural Resources Police 800-825-7275.

Cost for transportation including water taxi to/from island: $25 - If paying by check, payable to "BSA T-255."

Food: Bring a bag lunch for Saturday. Saturday dinner is Patrol cooking of real food. Sunday breakfast Patrol decision. Patrol planning is to be done at the September 8th meeting. Bring cash for Sunday lunch at a fast-food restaurant.

Packing: Pack for 45-degree weather. Pack all gear in backpacks, as all gear must be hiked about ¼ mile in and out to the campsite.

- Ø Bring a warm sleeping bag. Nighttime temperatures may drop below 45 degrees.
- Ø Towel & water shoes. Although swimming is not allowed scouts may get their feet wet while walking on the beach or fishing.
- Ø Bare feet are absolutely prohibited at any time outside of your tent.
- Ø Extra socks, wool and synthetic ones.
- Ø Layers of clothes; wear light layers -- take off outer layers as you warm up during the day.
- Ø Don't forget your rain jacket or poncho.
- Ø Bring a good flashlight with fresh batteries.
- Ø Bring a full liter (or quart) of water. Fill your bottles before you leave home.

RSVP: Please RSVP Rob Klein at rob.klein@montgomerycountymd.gov or Keith Pierce at hkp255@piercehome.us or 301-951-5290, or at the Troop Meeting, by Tuesday, September 8, 2009.
